

VINTAGE SHOE QUIZ

1. True or False, there is a Shoe Lane Library in the City of London?
 2. Spell "SHOE" pastry.
 3. How many pairs of shoes did Imelda Marcos have?
 4. What area of London is traditionally the shoemakers' district?
 5. Who said that she "had to do everything Fred Astaire had to do, only backwards, and in heels"?
 6. What are European shoe sizes measured in?
 7. Name a shoe-themed song?
 8. Which shoe did Pat Boone popularize in the 1950's?
A: White Bucks, B: Saddle Shoes, C: Penny Loafers
 9. In which European country does the groom drink a toast to his bride out of her wedding slipper?
 10. Which bear was known for his red Wellington boots?
 11. In which pantomime is Puss In Boots a character?
 12. What is the French word for shoe?
 13. In the early 19th Century, long distance walking became a popular pastime, What was it called?
A: Pedestrian, B: Walkabouts, C: Footings
 14. In the nursery rhyme, who sailed off in a wooden shoe?
A: The Owl and the Pussycat,
B: Wynker, Blynker and Nod C :The fork and the spoon
 15. Which fictitious secret agent had a telephone built into his shoe?
A: James Bond, B: John Speed, C: Maxwell Smart
-
-
- 